FROM THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

DEMOCRATIC ASCENDENCY MAINTAINED-DEMOCRATIC DUTY-THE SOLID NORTH VS. THE SOLID SOUTH-THE OBNOXIOUS PACIFIC RAILROAD COMBINATION, AND OTHER MAT-

WASHINGTON, November 9, 1878. Whatever else was done or left undone in the late elections in thirty-one states, Democratic control of the house of Representatives was not interrupted, and it is now certain that that party will have a majority in both house and senate for two years at least from the 4th of March next. An agreeable feature of the result, aside from this, is the re-election to the house of a good many Democrats of ability, character and legislative experience. Results less pleasant to contemplate are the foolish quarrels in New York and other states, which not only threatens to disturb the harmony of the party on future and more important occasions, but have caused serious

At this time it is not possible to give many details of the results, but it is safe to say that we have not gained so much as at one time seemed probable, or lost as heavily as many of late seemed to fear we would. New York is Republican, insuring the return of Conkling to the Senate. So is Pennsylvania, which equally assures the return of Don Cameron. The regular Republican candidate for Governor is elected in Massachusetts, beating Butler. The latter had nearly the whole opposition vote. In these and other Eastern States the Republicans gain Congressmen. In the South and West, generally the reverse is the fact.

It is now the duty of Democratic Senators and Representatives to show that they are worthy of the trust to be held by them in the near future. The next and final session of the Forty-fifth Congress will give them the opportunity; and they are bound so to act that when the Forty-sixth shall meet—the first session of a Democratic Congress in twenty years-they shall find the party united and harmonious. What in his hands by an East India mission should be done to bring this about, and to strengthen the party with the people will require all the wisdom of the best men we have, and the lessons should be given as soon as possible.

The Republican of this morning claims that the result indicates a coming "solid North" against a "solid South." This is not only false in fact, but is vicious and unpatriotic in intention. Sectional questions were hardly considered in the election, and it seems certain that if the Radicals had given more attention to them the result would have been a loss to their party. They fought the battle on the false but plausible claim that they alone believed in "honest money." Not until late in the fight, and then only in certain localities, was much said of the Southern question.

Great indignation is expressed, especially among representatives from the south relative to the combination of the so-called Southern Pacific railroad company with the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe company on this side, by which the south is to be cheated, if possible, out of a southern trans-continental line and the present monopoly of trade is to be further strengthened. But this will not have the effect the ring masters hope. It has aroused an indignation in the south and east which united with the desire of the government and the California people to break this grand monopoly, will probably result in constructing an independent line. Many who have been opposed to government interference before are now urging that congress should help the Texas & Pacific company to put their road through at once. Besides opening a rich country to settlement, this would bring the Huntington-Gould rings to terms.

THE TIDY HOUSEWIPE .- The careful, tidy housewife, when she is giving her house its spring cleaning, should bear in mind that the dear inmates of her house are more precious than houses, and that their systems need cleansing by purifying the blood, regulating the stomach and bowels to prevent and cure the disease arising from spring malaria and miasma, and she should know that there is nothing that will do it so perfeetly and surely as Hop Bitters, the purest

THE MIRACLE OF CENTURIES.

THE JEWS AND THEIR REMARKABLE PLACE IN THE WORLD'S HISTORY.

The following striking passage occurs in a paper on "The Gathering of Israel," read by Bishop Nicholson, of Philadelphia, before the Prophetic Conference:

Can the world show anything like iff Twice 1,800 years old, they saw the proud Egyptian perish in the Red Sea; they heard the fall of great Babylon's power; they witnessed the ruins of the Syro-Macedonian conquests. And now they have outlived the Casars, and outlived the dark ages. They have been through all civilizations, shar-ed in all convulsions, and have kept pace with the entire progress of discovery and art. And here they stand to-day, as distinct as as ever, occupying no country of their own, scattered through all countries identical in their immemorial physiognomy, earth's men of destiny, before the venerableness of whose pedigree the proudest escutcheons of mankind are but as trifles of yesterday. But have they suffered severely? They have been banished from place, banished and recalled, and banished again. By the code of Justinian, they were incapable of executing wills, of testifying in courts of justice, of having social and public worship. The Koran of Mahomet stigmatizes them as wild dogs: the Romish church excommunicated any one who held intercourse with them; the Greek church uttered anathemas still more severe. They have been forced to dissemble to save their lives, and now, in this nineteenth century they are a suf-fering people still, but still as indissoluble

But now all this is not according to the established course of nations. The northern tribes came into Southern Europe, and are now not at all distinguishable. No Englishman can say that he derives from the Britons and not from the Romans, or from the Saxons and not from the Normans. On the contary, the Jew is a Jew still. Even our own all-appropriating country, which denationalizes Germans, Irish, French, Spaniards, Finns, Swedes, has left untouched this wondrous people. Here they are, holding fast to that one telltale face, keeping up the sacred learning of their traditions, self-conscious in their isolation, irrepressible in their love of Jerusalem, sublimein their singular patriotism, evermore looking and longing for their Messiah, the same intense individuality as when, lords of the soil, they plucked his fruit from the trees of Judea. And, what is more, these world-wanderers of the centuries, these tribes of the weary foot, have not only survived, but have now risen again as an element of power among mankind. The Jew is the banker of the world; he is among the foremost, whether in literature, or science, or government. In witchery of song unsurpassed, he enchants the world with some of the sweetest music it ever heard. Surely he is the standing miracle of the world's current history: the bush of Moses, ever burning, but never consumed.

CONSUMPTION CARED .- An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed ary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure for consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthms, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it hisduty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French, or English. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. W. Sherar, 149 Powers' Block, Rochester, New York.

AN ASTONISHING FACT. - A large proportion of the American people are to-day suffering from the effects of Dyspepsis, or disordered liver. The result of these diseases upon the masses of intelligent and valuable people is more alarming, making life actually a burden instead of a pleasant existence of enjoyment and usefulness. There is no good reason for this, if you will only throw aside prejudice and skepticism, take the advice of druggists and your friends, and try one bottle of Green's August Flower, your speedy relief is certain. Millions of bottles of this medicine have been given away to try its virtues, with satisfactory results in every case. You can buy a sample bottle for ten cents to try. Three doses will relieve the worst case. Positively sold by all druggists on the Western Continent.

ONE of the thieves who stole the body of millionaire Stewart dropped a copy of the New York Herald. The Herald will now see what it has brought at least one of its readers to. Let it reform at once. Let it become permanently democratic .-- [Louisville Courier-Journal.

POMPEH.-Excavations at Pompeii prove the city to have been one of the most fashionable and beautiful of Roman summer resorts, and but for the eruption it might have beauty of form and feature. They might always be admired but for the cruption, that makes the face unsightly, and betrays the presence of scrofula, virulent blood poisons, or general debility. There is but one remedy that positively cures these affections, and that remedy is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is the best known tonic, alterative and resolvent. It speedily cures pimples, blotches, liver spots, and all diseases arising from impoverished or impure blood. It also and best of all medicines. See other col- cures dyspepsia, and regulates the liver and bowels. Sold by druggists.
